Parish Pilgrimage to Rome & Assisi

20th - 25th April 2012: This is a reminder to all those coming on the pilgrimage that the balance is to be paid to Pax Travel by 20th February. I will be booking a coach for travel to and from the airport. Philip Pye-Beraet

Please will all those interested in helping to organise the Martinmas Fair, contact Judith Kaplan as soon as possible.

Would anyone like to organise the Easter Garden this year? If so please contact Dave Talbot or Judith Kaplan.

OUTLOOK for February is now available. Would Distributors please collect their "bundles" please from the back of church.

We still need another volunteer distributor urgently for Fairfield Avenue. If you can help please contact Jackie in the Parish Office.

Thank you to all who came to assist with food preparation, and serving on Wednesday. Judith Kaplan.

At Brian Tinsey's funeral on Wednesday a collection was taken for Hearing Dogs for the Deaf.

There is an opportunity at the back of Church today for anyone else who wishes to contribute.

Hassocks

New hooks/brackets have been screwed into the pews. Please use these to hang your hassock up, after the service. These brackets are designed only to take the weight of a hassock. A huge thank you to Pat Taverner for screwing all the new brackets into place.

Dave Talbot & Judith Kaplan

Today is the last day for liturgical Ministers to fill in the non-availability sheet for the next rota.

New Home Groups:
Growing in Faith and Friendship
Look at the brochure and see what you would like to take part in.

Coming Soon.....
Walk through the Old Testament
Saturday 3rd March 9.30-4.30pm
Book yourself a place with Kim McCloghry

Please note:
We regret that there is currently no heating in church due to a major leak in the heating system. Work to remedy this will not start until Thursday 2nd February at the earliest. It will probably involve a good deal of disruption as the pipes that appear to be leaking are embedded in concrete underneath the pews. If you have any questions please speak to Judith or Dave.
