Giving Review

St Martin's has historically been a parish that has been able to support itself and also help less well-off parishes through the Common Fund, to have a priest. Over recent years that situation has changed significantly to the extent that we are now ourselves being financially supported. First, therefore, we are taking the chance to say a huge thank you to all who give financially and in so many other ways, and thus, make St Martin's the amazing place it is. Secondly, we will be asking you to consider, prayerfully and realistically, your own giving. More details about how we can celebrate our past and build for the future will follow in the next couple of weeks. For further information speak to Ken Wild.

Yours in partnership Fr. Robert
